- Connect and test any additional equipment before the meeting.
- Adjust your camera so that the far end can see you. Fill the screen with people rather than the table, chairs, walls, lights, or floor.
- Make sure that you can see and hear the far-end participants.
- Introduce all participants when the meeting starts.
- Speak in your normal voice without shouting. Use natural gestures when you speak.
- Do not tap on the microphone or rustle papers near the microphone. Mute the microphone before moving it. In a multipoint call, mute your microphone when you are not speaking.
